Occasional Childcare Newsletter April 2010

Term 2

Hope everyone had a happy Easter and is enjoying the break before Term 2 commences on Monday 12 April 2010.

There are two public holidays during Term 2: Monday 26 April 2010 (Anzac Day) and Monday 14 June 2010 (Queen's Birthday). There will be no childcare on these days.

Volunteer

We are pleased to welcome Miriam Riverlea to the Occasional Childcare team. Miriam has had prior experience working part-time in childcare centres in Melbourne and is currently studying full-time for a PhD. Miriam volunteers her services on Mondays and many parents would have met Miriam during Term 1.

Bookings

It is recommended that parents book their child into Occasional Childcare to ensure a place is available.

Up to 3 sessions can be pre-booked without prepayment.

Pre-payment of sessions can be made, however, please note that any credits accrued need to be used before the end of the current term. Credits will not be rolled over to next term.

No nuts please

Occasional Childcare is a 'nut-free' zone as part of our anaphylaxis policy.

Parents are asked not to send any nuts or nut products (eg peanut butter) to childcare as part of your child's snack.

Change of details

Please advise the OCC Coordinator of any change in circumstances, eg:

- Change of contact details
- You cease to be the holder of a Health Care Card
- Your child develops a medical condition that requires attention
- Change to authorised persons who can collect your child

To ensure ongoing commitment to quality service, MDHSS undertakes annual evaluations of the service it provides to the community.

We value your feedback regarding our services and we ask that you spend a few moments to complete the enclosed survey and return it in the stamped, self-addressed envelope as soon as possible.

Your privacy and confidentiality is maintained at all times and the information you provide will be used to improve the delivery of Occasional Childcare to the community.
